Respected Sir,

Sub: Request for Your Support and Blessings in Building Sri Maha Kalabairava Temple and Social Welfare Projects

With the divine grace of Lord Sri Maha Kalabairava, I am writing to you with utmost devotion and respect to seek your valuable support in a sacred and socially impactful initiative undertaken by Sri Maha Kalabairavar Gnanapeedam, Tiruvannamalai.

We are embarking on a historic spiritual mission the construction of the world's first-ever 33-feet tall Sri Maha Kalabairava statue, intricately carved from a single stone, along with a dedicated temple complex. This divine statue will not only be a spiritual marvel but also a symbol of eternal protection, time, and transformation values Lord Kalabairava embodies.

Along with the temple, our initiative also includes (An Old Age Home to serve and shelter our elderly with dignity and care. A Grand Meditation Hall to offer a peaceful space for spiritual seekers and wellness practitioners.)

On this sacred occasion, we humbly request your esteemed support and guidance spiritually, ideologically, and if possible, materially to help us bring this divine vision to life. Your lifelong commitment to Indhu Madham and service to society deeply inspires us. Your presence and involvement will be a great blessing and encouragement to our mission.

We would be honored to have your support in any form be it spiritual endorsement, awareness, collaboration, or contribution toward building this temple and its accompanying social service centers.

Looking forward to your kind response and blessings.

With deepest respect and devotion,

For SRI MAHA KALABAIRAVAR GNANA PEEDAM

TEMPLE GARDEN & GOSHALA

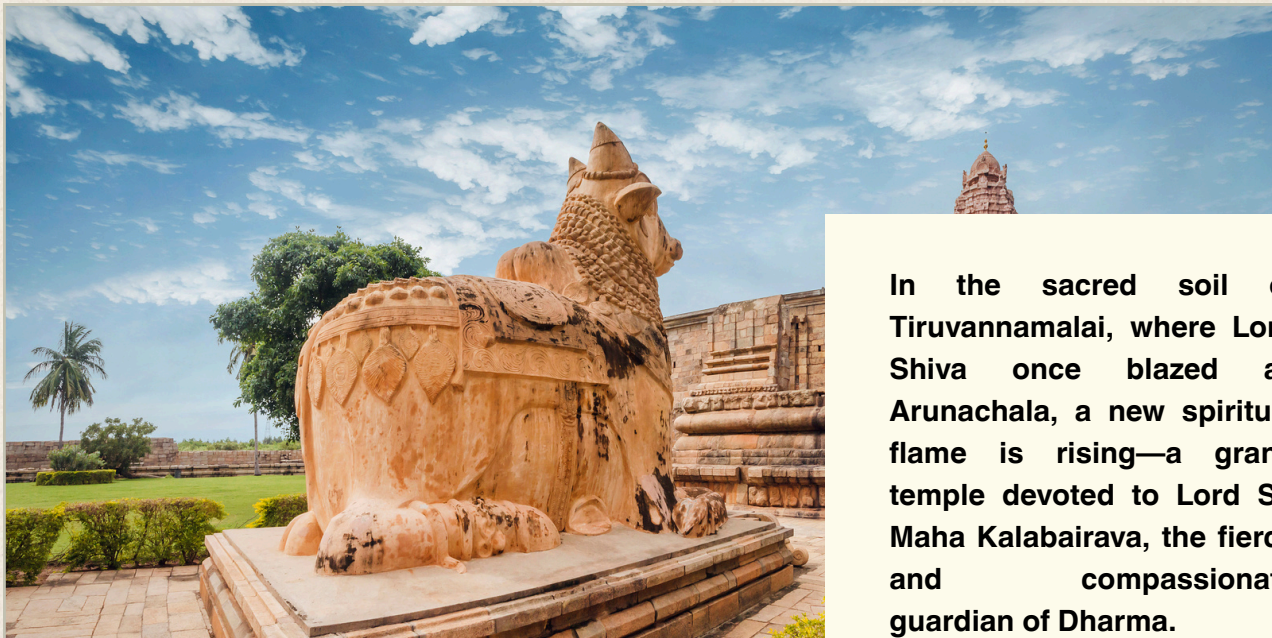

A traditional herbal garden and cow shelter, preserving nature's sanctity and the importance of Gau Seva in temple life.

A BRIEF History OF KALABAIRAVA STATUE

Located in the sacred land of Arunachala, the energy of Lord Kalabairava is particularly powerful here. This temple will become a spiritual landmark for seekers across the world.

In the sacred soil of Tiruvannamalai, where Lord Shiva once blazed as Arunachala, a new spiritual flame is rising—a grand temple devoted to Lord Sri Maha Kalabairava, the fierce and compassionate guardian of Dharma.

TRADITION FACTS

For the first time in the world, we are sculpting a 33-feet tall Kalabairava from a single monolithic stone—a timeless embodiment of protection, power, and purpose.

Fact lines

This is not just construction.
It is Dharma in stone. Bhakti in form. Legacy in action.

Moments

It is a beacon of Sanatana Dharma and compassion for generations to come.

THE FORGOTTEN GUARDIAN OF TIME

Sri Maha Swarna Akarshana Bhairavar is the fierce form of Lord Shiva—the protector of time (Kāla), the destroyer of evil, and the remover of fear. He guards the very gates of temples, ensuring only the pure enter.

But in many places, Kalabairava is forgotten, his temples are small, and his legacy scattered.

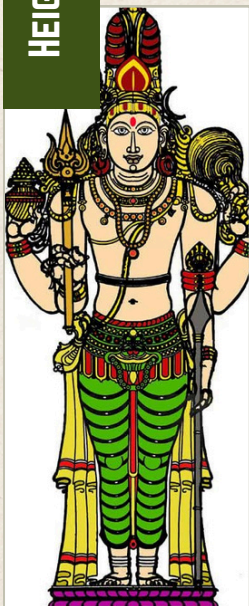

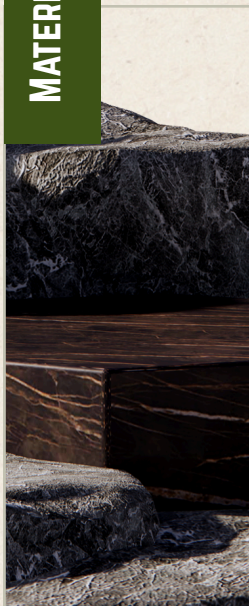

We are now correcting this course—by building a grand shrine and global spiritual center that re-establishes Kalabairava's divine significance for generations to come.

In all of India, and the world, there exists no other Kalabairava statue of this scale in monolithic form.

WHY THIS STATUE IS HISTORIC

HEIGHT	MATERIAL	WEIGHT	CRAFTSMANSHIP	STATUS
 33 feet Height	 One Single Granite Stone	 Over 300 Tons	 Traditional hand-carved by sacred artisans	 World's tallest Kalabairava statue carved from a single stone

Top THE TEMPLE BEYOND STONE

This is not just a statue or a shrine. It is an ecosystem of devotion and compassion:

KALABAIRAVA TEMPLE

- Kalabairava Temple – A sanctum for daily pooja, meditation, and festivals.
- Meditation Hall – A place for silence, reflection, and spiritual learning.
- Old Age Home – A shelter of dignity for our forgotten elders.
- Annadhanam Hall – Daily offerings to devotees, sadhus, and the needy.

Here, Dharma is lived. Compassion is practiced. Bhakti is nurtured.

In sacred texts like the Kalabhairava Ashtakam and Shiva Purana, Lord Kalabairava is hailed as:

“Kaalabheda Kaala Roopa, Sarva Paapa Haro Hari”
He who transcends time, dissolves sin, and protects the righteous.

Kalabairava is not a form to be feared—but one to be revered. He is the Divine Watchman of the Universe, always alert, always just. In this temple, we reawaken the forgotten power of Kalabairava in today's age of confusion and chaos.

At Sri Maha Swarna Akarshana Bhairavar Temple, this divine milestone will be celebrated in accordance with Agama Shastra traditions, accompanied by powerful homams, sacred chants, and spiritual festivities — marking a day of immense blessings for all devotees.
